About Optum Property & Casualty Subrogation Solutions

Optum Property & Casualty Subrogation Solutions collaborates with clients to identify potential third-party liability claims and recover payments in the complex environments of workers' comp, auto, and property insurance. Optum Subro Predictive Analytics utilizes a combination of machine learning, priority scoring, reasoning, and action to identify/prioritize claims with subrogation opportunity. We then use customized and sophisticated workflows to ensure the correct payments are paid by the correct parties. For more information, email us at expectmore@optum.com.
